Disciples Don't Dig Graves

¹⁸ Now when Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side. ¹⁹ And a scribe came up and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." ²⁰ And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." ²¹ Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." ²² And Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead." Matthew 18:18-22

PRAYER REQUESTS

- ◆ Brett Nowlin's cancer surgery went well, they were able to safely remove the tumor. He will be recovering at home.
- ◆ Charles Tyson is still receiving physical therapy and continues to stay at the VA Hospital, in Seattle.
- ◆ Don & Susan Mellor's daughter Karen, is recovering from back surgery.

Dear Lakeview Family,
I have been told by my doctor that they are not anticipating any operations due to my age. They have control of my blood pressure and my bleeding. They will continue to treat me with meds. God has answered our prayers and we are truly grateful for all of those who have prayed. I am just old and that's a definitive observation, some of the meds leave me tired and weak but I still get my fair share of activity and what more can you ask. I picture my heart from his description is leaking and fighting the arterial disease we all get as we grow old. Thankful for the ability to move about. Prayer will still be needed but the answers are tough but normal for my age. I love the congregation and thankful for years I served as a deacon (small group ministry) and for teaching experience I have had, Delano Family events and GNEW which was so inspiring to me and my family. The years have been good to us. I still see Pam laughing and enjoying all of you.

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

at Central Kitsap Church of Christ

Dear Brethren,

As the summer days begin to fade and the anticipation of a new school year grows, we find ourselves reflecting on the incredible support and generosity of friends like you. On behalf of everyone at Mountain States Children's Home, we want to extend our deepest gratitude for your continued commitment to our mission.

For many children, the start of a new school year can be a challenging time. Together, we can transform this season into one of hope and possibility for our kids. The on-campus school provides a nurturing environment where our children can focus on their studies and develop the skills they need to thrive. Thanks to your support, we can provide resources that are essential for a successful academic year. These tools not only equip our children for learning but also instill a sense of confidence and excitement as they head back to the classroom.

Your donation is essential to continuing the gift of education and so much more. Thank you for partnering with us!

For the children,
Nick Mears
Executive Director, Mountain States Children's Home

Acting Like A Dog

Though all dogs have different traits, habits and personalities, most dogs have some good traits in common. In many ways Christians should act more like their dogs, for example...

- Dogs are always glad to see you when you come home.
"Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another" (Romans 12:10)
- Dogs are satisfied with a little something to eat and a place to lay down.
"Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content." (Philippians 4:11)
- If you're sick and feeling bad, dogs will lie in your lap or at your feet and give you quite comfort.
"Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing." (1 Thes. 5:11)
- Dogs are forgiving. Even after you scold, discipline or hurt them accidentally, they still love you.
"And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you." (Ephesians 4:32)
